

Kurtis Parker– Alpaca Judge Profile

Kurtis has been immersed in the world of alpacas from a young age, developing a strong passion and extensive hands-on experience with these unique animals. Since 2018, he has operated his own stud, Dural Alpaca Park, with a clear focus on breeding alpacas that exhibit high-quality fleece and sound animal characteristics.

Throughout his involvement in the alpaca industry, Kurtis has consistently sought to expand his knowledge, learning from a wide range of industry experts with a particular interest in fleece traits and overall animal quality. This commitment to professional growth has strongly informed both his breeding program and his judging practice.

Now a fully qualified Australian Alpaca Judge, Kurtis brings a confident, knowledgeable, and fair approach to the judging ring. He applies a well-developed understanding of desirable fleece and animal characteristics and is committed to upholding and promoting industry standards within the alpaca community.
